

Where is my CBIC Record ID?

First, login to the CBIC website if you have an existing account, or create an account if you do not have an account with CBIC.

Welcome to the New CBIC Community Portal

CBIC has moved to a new platform hosted within the APIC system and managed by CBIC. You can now log in to the CBIC Community Portal to manage your certification applications and IPU records.

- If you already have an APIC account, use your existing APIC username and password.
- If you do not have an APIC account, use the username and password you created from the email sent by info@cbic.org.
- If you did not receive the email, click "Forgot your password?" on the login page and enter your email address to reset it.
